

entertained yesterday afternoon in their Foxhall road house in honor of his retiring deputy, Burke Wilkinson, and his wife. . . . It's not final but the State Department grapevine says Burke is slated for the Paris post of Public Affairs Officer to Gen. Lauris Norstad, head of SHAPE.

Deputy Undersecretary of State Loy Henderson was there and chatting with Bob Bowie of Harvard, former head of the Policy Planning Staff. This September, the latter will begin something new at Harvard—a nine-month seminar on international diplomacy for Class 1 diplomats from 8 or 9 countries around the world.

Assistant Secretary of State Walter Robertson came by in dinner jacket, en route to Gen. and Mrs. Randolph Pate's dinner for Mme. Chiang Kai-shek. Assistant Secretary "Butts" Macomber was similarly attired.

Deputy Director of Central Intelligence Agency and Mrs. John Amory said they were headed for Maine in a few days. They will take with them on a 26-foot boat John has bought himself in back of their home here on Dexter terrace. It's no mere hull, either. It's complete with cabins. Mary said she was "asked" to do the painting.

United States Information Boss George Allen was there with his wife Kitty, the "Link" Whites, Jerry and Edith Green, Assistant Secretary of Defense, and Mrs. Murray Snyder, Chalmers Roberts, and "Phyzzie" and Bob Lee. The latter were talking about the terrible accident. Italian diplomat Franco Lucio Ottieri had Sunday night when he and his Embassy colleague Salvatore Porcari collided. Franco's wife Carolyn was in Brussels when the accident occurred but reached her husband's side in Georgetown hospital by early Tuesday morning. Franco was reported better yesterday and able to speak for the first time.
